Qualifying for Lifeline

Lifeline is a federal benefit and willfully making false statements to obtain the benefit can result in fines, imprisonment, de-enrollment, or being barred from the program. Only one Lifeline service is available per household. A household is defined, for purposes of the Lifeline program, as any individual or group of individuals who live together at the same address and share income and expenses. A household is not permitted to receive Lifeline benefits from multiple providers. Violation of the one-per-household limitation constitutes a violation of the Federal Communications Commission's (or "FCC") rules and will result in the subscriber's de-enrollment from the program. Lifeline is a non-transferable benefit, and the subscriber may not transfer his or her benefit to any other person.

You may qualify for federal Lifeline benefits if your household income is at or below 135% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines (FPG), or you participate in any of these programs.

- Medicaid (not Medicare)
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP or food stamps)
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Federal Public Housing Assistance (FPHA)
- Veterans and Survivors Pension Benefit

If you live on Tribal lands, you could also qualify for Enhanced Lifeline support if you meet the above requirements or participate in any of these programs:

- Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) General Assistance
- Tribal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (Tribal TANF)
- Tribal Administered Head Start (meeting income qualifying standards)
- Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR)

Please note: You're responsible for notifying us within 30 days of learning that you no longer meet the eligibility requirements for the Lifeline program.
